

In the Indiana Supreme Court

Eric Holcomb, in his official capacity as Governor of the State of Indiana,
Appellant,
v.
City of Bloomington,
Appellee.

Supreme Court Case No.
19S-PL-00304

Trial Court Case No.
53C06-1705-PL-001138

Order

The Court has determined the above-captioned case merits oral argument. The argument will be conducted in the Courtroom of the Indiana Supreme Court, 317 Statehouse, 200 West Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana on:

Thursday, January 9, 2020 at 9:00 a.m.

The argument will be forty minutes in length, equally divided between the appellant(s) and the appellee(s). If there are multiple appellants or appellees, the parties shall divide their side's allotted time among themselves as they deem appropriate. Any entity granted amicus curiae status may argue without further motion, but only with the consent of the party with whom the amicus curiae is substantively aligned. If the Court has granted transfer, the appellant shall argue first. If the petition to transfer jurisdiction is pending, the petitioner on transfer shall argue first.

Attorneys of record and self-represented parties shall file an acknowledgement of the oral argument setting no later than fifteen days after service of this order, and should arrive at least twenty minutes before the scheduled start of the argument to complete an appearance form. Important information about oral argument procedures is in Appellate Rules 52 and 53, and on the internet at www.IN.gov/judiciary/supreme/2331.htm. Contact the Department of Supreme Court Services at 317-232-2540 with questions not answered on the website or by the rules.
