| 8 | MR. D. GALLAWAY: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. | |
| 9 | The affidavit that Mr. Shull submitted is pretty | |
| 10 | self-explanatory. Mr. Eib filed a declaration | |

| 12 | declaration of candidacy, he claimed that the | |

| 1 | recorded to have participated in. | 16 |
| 2 | So first of all, his declaration of candidacy | |
| 3 | is inaccurate, and according to IC 3-8-2-7, Section | |
| 4 | 4 Subsection A and B, in order for him to be | |
| 5 | affiliated under this set of circumstances, he | |
| 6 | would have to have the chairman of the local county | |
| 7 | affirm that he is in fact a valid candidate for the | |
| 8 | Republican Party, since the last primary was a | |
| 9 | Democratic primary that he voted in. | |
| 10 | Part of the affidavit that Mr. Shull | |
| 11 | submitted, Paragraph 12 says that he declined Mr. | |
| 12 | Eib's request to run in the Republican primary. As | |
| 13 | a result, it's Mr. Shull's position that Mr. Eib | |
| 14 | has been disqualified from running as a Republican | |
| 15 | candidate for judge in Superior Court 3 in the | |
| 16 | upcoming Republican primary. | |
| 17 | Should the Commission wish, and I'll leave it | |
| 18 | totally with the Commission's discretion, it's our | |
| 19 | belief that Mr. Eib may assert that there was some | |
| 20 | sort of mistake made during the process of the 2008 | |
| 21 | primary that reflected him voting as a Democrat. | |
| 22 | I can offer testimony from Mr. Florence as to | |
| 23 | the procedures that are laid out, the safeguards | |

| 1 | 19 challenge the constitutionality of the statute. In |
| 2 | 1973, in the case Kusper v. Pontikes, the Supreme |
| 3 | Court heard a challenge of a very similar Illinois |
| 4 | election law, which barred voters from |
| 5 | participating in a primary held by one political |
| 6 | party if they voted in a primary held by another |
| 7 | party in 23 calendar months. |
| 8 | The Illinois statute was stricken down on the |
| 9 | grounds that it unconstitutionally infringed on the |
| 10 | First and Fourteenth Amendment rights of free |
| 11 | political association. The court held that |
| 12 | "Freedom to associate with others for the common |
| 13 | advancement of political beliefs and ideas is a |
| 14 | form of "orderly group activity" protected by the |
| 15 | First and Fourteenth Amendments, and the right to |
| 16 | associate with a political party of one's choice is |
| 17 | an integral part of this basic constitutional |
| 18 | freedom. |
| 19 | In the dicta on that same case, the Supreme |
| 20 | Court denounced the Illinois statute, stating as |
| 21 | follows: "The effect of the Illinois statute is |
| 22 | thus to 'lock' the voter into his pre-existing |
| 23 | party affiliation for a substantial period of time |
| 24 | following participation in any primary election, |
| 25 | and each primary vote extends this period of |

1 confinement.

20

Now, the statute in question today, IC 3-8-2-7 has the same effect of locking voters who wish to run for partisan elected office into his or her pre-existing party affiliation for a substantial period of time following participation in a primary election. And like the Illinois law, each primary vote extends that period of confinement.

9 Proponents of the Illinois statute claimed 10 that the 23-month rule served a legitimate state 11 interest preventing "raiding" or the practice of 12 strategic voting in the primary of another party to 13 disrupt that party's chances in the general 14 election.

However, argument was rejected with the court 15 stating that significant encroachment upon 16 associated freedom cannot be justified upon a mere 17 showing of a legitimate state interest, for even 18 when pursuing a legitimate interest, a State may 19 20 not choose means that unnecessarily restrict constitutionally protected liberty. 21 Similarly, the purpose of IC 3-8-2-7 as put 22

forth by Chairman Wheeler on page 81 of the minutes of the March 5th, 2010 commission meeting is for the legitimate state interest of preventing

| 21 | February 26, 2014 | a , |
|----|---|----------------|
| 1 | "stealth" candidates from filing in a majority | 21 |
| 2 | district. | |
| 3 | And for the same reasons that the legitimate | |
| 4 | state interest cited in the Illinois statute, is | |
| 5 | insufficient to justify the encroachment on the | |
| 6 | First and Fourteenth Amendment rights of the | |
| 7 | individual, the state interest advanced by the | |
| 8 | statute is insufficient to justify its encroachment | |
| 9 | onto the rights of citizens of Indiana. | |
| 10 | Now, a similar argument against the | |
| 11 | constitutionality of this statute was brought | |
| 12 | before the commission on the 24th of February, 2012 | |
| 13 | in Cause No. 2012-74, challenging the candidacy of | |
| 14 | Leonard Compton. Chairman Dumezich stated as | |
| 15 | follows on pages 68 and 69 of the minutes of that | |
| 16 | meeting, at the end of the day there is a remedy, | |
| 17 | and the remedy is fairly simple, and for whatever | |
| 18 | reason, faulty memory, he did not take that remedy | |
| 19 | that he had, and that is why I think the statute is | |
| 20 | constitutional as well. | |
| 21 | While this case and by the very affidavit | |
| 22 | presented by Mr. Shull, I attempted to avail myself | |
| 23 | of that remedy and was refused. After discovering | |
| 24 | that Mr. Shull had obtained information from my | |

| 1 | that it contained information that I knew to be | 22 |
| 2 | inaccurate, I endeavored to rectify the matter the | |
| 3 | matter without the necessity of this hearing. | |
| 4 | I contacted Mr. Shull, County Chairman of the | |
| 5 | Republican Party, and the challenger in this case, | |
| 6 | and explained the situation to him, that the | |
| 7 | information contained in the Statewide Voter | |
| 8 | Registration List is inaccurate and requested that | |
| 9 | he certify my affiliation with the Republican Party | |
| 10 | as permitted in the statute, and he refused. | |
| 11 | I then contacted Mr. Mark Florence, the Grant | |
| 12 | County Clerk, on the advice of the Election | |
| 13 | Division of the Secretary of State, again | |
| 14 | explaining that the Statewide Voter Registration | |
| 15 | List is inaccurate and asked if there was a way to | |
| 16 | amend the information on the list, and he indicated | |
| 17 | that there was not. | |
| 18 | Without the ability to avail myself of the | |
| 19 | remedy that Chairman Dumezich referred to, the | |
| 20 | statute is clearly unconstitutional by the finding | į |
| 21 | of the Supreme Court in Kusper v. Pontikes. | |
| 22 | Completely separate and insufficient, the | |
| 23 | argument is the record is factually incorrect. For | |
| 24 | every primary election I've participated in, it has | ę |

| 4 | in the Grant County Clerk's Office. The next | |
| 5 | greatest being in 2004, with 4,598 fewer votes | |
| 6 | than registered in 2008. | |
| 7 | Given the potential for human error and the | |
| 8 | sheer number of voters' information being | |
| 9 | entered, particularly in 2008, there is a near | |
| 10 | certainty that the list will contain some | |

| 12 | It is impossible to verify the content of | |

| 16 | I do not dispute that the content of the | |

| 8 | Irrespective of an erroneous entry in the | |

| 10 | criteria set forth by the law because I did, in | |
| 11 | fact, vote in the 2008 Republican Primary | |
| 12 | Election. | |
| 13 | In my review of the minutes of the meeting | |
| 14 | of this commission, I have not found a single | |

| 11 | A | That is correct. |
| 12 | Q | And a chief election officer in Grant County? |
| 13 | A | That is correct. |
| 14 | Q | And you've been involved in Grant County |
| 15 | | elections for approximately 35 years in some |
| 16 | | capacity other than clerk? |
| 17 | A | That's correct. |
| 18 | Q | You've been on the election board? |
| 19 | A | For 13 years, prior to being the Clerk, I was |
| 20 | | the chairman. |
| 21 | Q | And you served as a mechanic on various machines |
| 22 | | and you have a lot of experience with the way |
| 23 | | that the voting process works in Grant County; |
| 24 | | is that correct? |

| 4 | | in the declaration of a party affiliation in a |

| 6 | A | One that I know of. |
| 7 | Q | And was that resolved? |
| 8 | A | Yes. |
| 9 | Q | Can you briefly explain how that was resolved? |
| 10 | A | Yeah. It's my understanding that the records |
| 11 | | were still intact at the time that the |
| 12 | | individual challenged the party affiliation and |
| 13 | | it was reviewed on the records from the precinct |
| 14 | | and it was incorrect. |
| 15 | Q | Okay. So you were able to confirm what the |

| 17 | А | Correct. |
| 18 | Q | Okay. Now, can you briefly explain I'm going |
| 19 | | to walk you through when someone goes to |
| 20 | | vote, they go up to the table and they declare |
| 21 | | which party; is that correct? |
| 22 | A | They declare their name, show their ID, and ask |

| 1 | | that correct? | 38 |
| 2 | A | They're required to sign their name and also | |
| 3 | | circle which party ballot they choose. | |
| 4 | Q | So the voter is the one who actually designates | |
| 5 | | which ballot they're choosing? | |
| 6 | A | That's what we instruct our poll workers, to | |
| 7 | | have the voter do that. | |
| 8 | Q | So the poll worker is not the one who checks | |
| 9 | | party affiliation as a matter of course? | |
| 10 | A | We do not instruct them to do it that way. | |
| 11 | Q | Okay. Once that declaration is made, is it | |
| 12 | | correct that there is a small paper tab that is | |
| 13 | | given to the voter that either has an R or a D | |
| 14 | | on it? | |
| 15 | A | That is correct. | |
| 16 | Q | And then they take that to the booth in which a | |
| 17 | | panel at the voting booth is placed in front of | |
| 18 | | them either with Republican candidates or | |
| 19 | | Democrat candidates? | |
| 20 | A | The ballot is set to whatever their card shows | |
| 21 | | that they choose to vote on in presence of the | |
| 22 | | voter. | |
| 23 | Q | Now, there is a bar code that's also associated | |

| 11 | A | That's correct. | |
| 12 | Q | Can you briefly explain that to the commission? | |
| 13 | A | The poll book comes back to the voter | |
| 14 | | registration office at the completion of the | |
| 15 | | election. On the front page is the precinct on | |
| 16 | | it and there's a bar code there that we take the | |

| 22 | | Then they start down through the poll list o | n |

| 2 | | has either a D or an R or another under a bar code, |
| 3 | | we scan that, and it pops it up, and then they |
| 4 | | place it, the D or the R on there, and check it for |

| 14 | Q | And on that occasion it was found that the | |

| 3 | | Also, in looking at the candidacy declaration |
| 4 | | of Mr. Feuerbach, what we find is that he even uses |
| 5 | | inconsistent names in the candidacy. In some, |
| 6 | | we'll show you that in fact he should be struck as |
| 7 | | a candidate, or at the bare minimum, that the name |
| 8 | | used in the candidacy should remove the offending |
| 9 | | nickname that is not actually in general use. |
| 10 | | So initially, what I will do is I have some |
| 11 | | testimony here from my client, Mr. Eggleston. |
| 12 | | |
| 13 | DIF | RECT EXAMINATION |
| 14 | | QUESTIONS BY MR. THOMAS A. JOHN: |
| 15 | Q | Would you identify yourself? |
| 16 | A | Bill Eggleston Bloomington, Indiana. |
| 17 | Q | And I will hand you a document here. Can you |
| 18 | | tell me what this is? |
| 19 | A | This is a voter search of my status as an active |
| 20 | | voter of Monroe County. |
| 21 | Q | Okay. In what Congressional District? |
| 22 | A | In Congressional District No. 9. |
| 23 | Q | Now, I'll hand you another document. Can you |
| 24 | | identify that, please. |
| 25 | A | Yes. This is Mr. Feuerbach's status in Monroe |

| 1 | | County as an active voter, and his address. |
| 2 | Q | And what's the name on that? |
| 3 | A | Trenton L. Feuerbach. |
| 4 | Q | Okay. Any reference on there to Tea Party? |
| 5 | A | No, none that I see. |
| 6 | Q | So now, are you familiar with a Trenton L. |
| 7 | | Feuerbach? |
| 8 | A | Only I met him only by seeing his name on |
| 9 | | various documents. |
| 10 | Q | But you were aware of him in the community; |
| 11 | | correct? |
| 12 | A | Yes. |
| 13 | Q | And do you hear him referred to as Tea Party |
| 14 | | Trent? |
| 15 | A | Never. I've never heard of that, no. |
| 16 | Q | Okay. How often have you heard his name? |
| 17 | A | Oh, occasionally. I'm a candidate myself for a |
| 18 | | position in the township, and in just glancing |
| 19 | | at the various things, I've seen his name, but |
| 20 | | never a Tea Party name. |
| 21 | Q | And I do not have copies of this, but I assume |
| 22 | | that the Commission and counsel do. This is the |
| 23 | | Declaration of Candidacy I'm handing to |
| 24 | | Mr. Eggleston; correct? |
| 25 | A | Right. |

| 53 | | February 26, 2014 |
|----|---|--|
| 1 | Q | 53 So a couple of different things. At the top of |
| 2 | | the candidacy where it says, name of candidate, |
| 3 | | what does it say there? |
| 4 | A | Trenton Lee Feuerbach. |
| 5 | Q | And then you go down further where it says the |
| 6 | | candidate's name, what's it say? |
| 7 | A | It says I request that my name be put on the |
| 8 | | ballot as Teaparty Trent Feuerbach. |
| 9 | Q | So everything |
| 10 | | CHAIRMAN B. BENNETT: If you're done with |
| 11 | | that, could you pass that to the Commission? |
| 12 | | MR. T. JOHN: I literally just got that. |
| 13 | Q | So based on that, based on the law, we have |
| 14 | | specific requirements that 3-5-7-5 sets forth |
| 15 | | that the only nickname that can be used is one |
| 16 | | that is used in common parlance, that people are |
| 17 | | identified as that, that people are recognized |
| 18 | | as that, i.e using the name Tom rather than |
| 19 | | Thomas, which is on my voter record. |
| 20 | | In this case, we're dealing with somebody |
| 21 | | who is actually using essentially their own |
| 22 | | micro-party affiliation which distorts the rules |
| 23 | | of our elections and distorts what the intent of |
| 24 | | the law is, which is to allow people to be |
| 25 | | identified in a way that the community |

| 1 | | recognizes them. And in this case, this is not | 54 |
| 2 | | what this is, and so the candidacy should be | |
| 3 | | stricken. | |
| 4 | | MR. P. OGDEN: Your Honor, I'll have to | |
| 5 | | object to this. I don't think we're on closing | |
| 6 | | argument yet. I think counsel is engaging in | |
| 7 | | closing argument. | |
| 8 | | CHAIRMAN B. BENNETT: Any further questions | |
| 9 | | of this witness? | |
| 10 | | MR. T. JOHN: NO. | |
| 11 | | CHAIRMAN B. BENNETT: Cross-examination. | |
| 12 | | MR. P. OGDEN: Sure, actually. | |

| 15 | | QUESTIONS BY MR. PAUL K. OGDEN: | |
| 16 | Q | I appreciate everyone coming in today. | |
| 17 | | Mr. Eggleston, you signed the candidate filing | |
| 18 | | challenge, and I'll read from that, which is | |
| 19 | | before the Commission: To the best of my | |
| 20 | | knowledge, Mr. Feuerbach is not commonly known | |
| 21 | | as Tea Party Trent and therefore this is | |
| 22 | | invalid. You said that; correct? | |
| 23 | A | Yes. | |
| 24 | Q | And your testimony today was that you've never | |
| 25 | | met the man? | |

| 12 | | CHAIRMAN B. BENNETT: Mr. Ogden, did you | |

| 18 | Q | And just to clarify, you said that you've not | |

| 21 | A | On various party documents of one kind or | |
| 22 | | another, that he was going to run, had the | |
| 23 | | intent to run. | |
| 24 | Q | Various party documents, like what? | |

| 9 | CHAIRMAN B. BENNETT: The Challenger may | |

| 11 | MR. T. JOHN: So we believe that we have | |
| 12 | demonstrated that in fact there is no evidence | |
| 13 | that Mr. Feuerbach goes by the name of Tea | |
| 14 | Party. Under 3-5-7-5, there's a clear | |
| 15 | requirement that you must actually be commonly | |
| 16 | known as a nickname in order to use it on the | |
| 17 | ballot, the candidate declaration form. | |
| 18 | And so because of that, we have a candidate | |
| 19 | declaration form that does not comply with the | |
| 20 | actual requirements of 3-8-2-7, and thus, should be | |
| 21 | stricken he should be removed from the ballot, | |
| 22 | or at least at the bare minimum, the phrase Tea | |
| 23 | Party should be removed from the listing of the | |

| 25 | We would argue that there was any compliance | |

| 3 | CHAIRMAN B. BENNETT: Thank you. | |
| 4 | MR. P. OGDEN: A very brief argument. | |
| 5 | Mr. Eggleston filed this. Mr. Hogan did not | |
| 6 | file this. Mr. Eggleston made the accusation | |
| 7 | that he that Mr. Feuerbach is not commonly | į |
| 8 | known as Tea Party Trent, yet he doesn't even | |
| 9 | know the man. He's never been to his house. He | |
| 10 | doesn't socialize with him. He wouldn't know | |
| 11 | him if he walked in the door. | |
| 12 | If Mr. Hogan wanted to challenge, he should | |
| 13 | have filed this challenge. He did not file this | |
| 14 | challenge. Mr. Eggleston filed it. He, obviously, | |
| 15 | doesn't know him he doesn't even know him so I | |
| 16 | don't know how he could say what Mr. Feuerbach is | |
| 17 | commonly known as. So we would say that we | |
| 18 | would ask that the challenge be denied. Thank you. | |
| 19 | CHAIRMAN B. BENNETT: Thank you. We will | |
| 20 | now close the hearing in Cause No. 2014-02. It | |
| 21 | is appropriate now for discussion by the | |
| 22 | Commission. One question I have of legal | |
| 23 | counsel is whether the law would allow simply | |
| 24 | striking the name Tea Party from the ballot or | qiaith |
| 25 | whether the candidate must be removed? | http://www.yeslaw.net/http |

| 1 | MR. D. SIMMONS: Mr. Chairman, Members of | 61 |
| 2 | the Commission, there's a very specific statute | |
| 3 | and subsection that applies here. It's 3-5-7-7, | |
| 4 | Subsection C, and it's on Page 114 of the Code | |
| 5 | book, but it indicates that if the commission | |
| 6 | finds that the candidate used a designation not | |
| 7 | permitted by the statute that's been argued here | |
| 8 | today, that the candidate's considered to have | |
| 9 | withdrawn the candidate's candidacy. | |
| 10 | So the finding is essentially that the | |
| 11 | candidate is off the ballot if the finding is that | |
| 12 | the candidate used a designation not authorized by | |
| 13 | state law. | |
| 14 | CHAIRMAN B. BENNETT: Thank you. Ms. | |

| 3 | the form, stated his residency as 578, 74th | |

| 5 | up to the top, stated he is a registered voter | |

| 12 | however, which is where the form asks the candidate | |
| 13 | to comply with the requirements of IC 3-8-2-7 | |
| 14 | regarding party affiliation. | |
| 15 | That statute that I just mentioned requires a | E |

| 18 | heard about earlier this morning, is to attest and | |

| 1 | designate which of those options they are choosing. |
| 2 | Mr. Bryk did not check either box, and in |
| 3 | addition, as you'll see, I've provided his full |
| 4 | filing, including his cover letter, he did not |
| 5 | include a certification from a county chairman. So |
| 6 | I argue that on its face the form is incomplete and |
| 7 | therefore should be rejected, but even going beyond |
| 8 | that, I also argue that Mr. Bryk should not be |
| 9 | allowed to be a candidate and his candidacy should |
| 10 | be rejected because he has not shown any way in |
| 11 | which he meets the requirements of IC 3-8-2-7 to |
| 12 | be to appear on the Democratic ballot. |
| 13 | And I will point out, just to kind of head |
| 14 | this off, this is you know, we're talking now |
| 15 | about a party primary. We're not talking about |
| 16 | candidacy for a general election. So if Mr. Bryk's |
| 17 | candidacy is rejected today, to be in the |
| 18 | Democratic Party primary, that does not mean we are |
| 19 | stopping him from being a candidate in a general |
| 20 | election. There are other avenues. This is today |
| 21 | talking about and this is a challenge to a |
| 22 | candidacy for a Party primary. |
| 23 | CHAIRMAN B. BENNETT: As opposed to |
| 24 | qualifications for an office? |
| 25 | MS. T. DRESCHER: Correct. |

| 6 | DR. R. SCHEELE: Welcome again. My name is | |

| 10 | my colleague, Dr. Jay Bagga, who's also a | |
| 11 | professor of computer science at Ball State and | |
| 12 | co-director of VSTOP. | |
| 13 | We have a very brief report today. The I'm | |
| 14 | not sure if you received this, but this is the | |
| 15 | you should have in front of you then the very short | |
| 16 | report with respect to ECOs, which are engineering | |
| 17 | change orders, on the voting systems that have | |
| 18 | currently been, or are currently certified in the | |
| 19 | state of Indiana. | |
| 20 | The one voting system that you are looking at | |
| 21 | today was the Unisyn voting system that's certified | |
| 22 | and they have submitted some engineering change | |
| 23 | orders to the voting systems. As you know, | |
| 24 | technology moves rapidly, so there's always changes | |
| 25 | made for our voting equipment. | |

N J

Ŋ

Ì

| 1 | And today, we are recommending to the | 72 |
|----|---|----|
| 2 | Commission that you approve two de minimis ECOs for | |
| 3 | the Unisyn Voting System 1.1. You'll see on the | |
| 4 | back on the second page, the we say it's a de | |
| 5 | minimis change rather than a major modification. A | |
| 6 | de minimus change does not go to the core | |
| 7 | functionality of the voting system. A de minimis | |
| 8 | change is a minor one. It could be something like | |
| 9 | a cable. It could be something like a USB port or | |
| 10 | what have you. There's all kinds of examples of de | |
| 11 | minimis ones. | |
| 12 | We look at those, each one of them, and make a | |
| 13 | determination as to whether or not it is a major | |
| 14 | modification, and if so, it has to go to a lab and | |
| 15 | be tested to make sure that the functionality is | |
| 16 | going to remain or be improved by a more major | |
| 17 | modification, or in the case of de minimis, we | |
| 18 | determine that it is it does not go to that core | |
| 19 | functionality. | |
| 20 | So the two, ECO 1014 and ECO 16911 are the two | |
| 21 | de minimis ones that we recommend that the | |
| 22 | Commission approve. | |
| 23 | CHAIRMAN B. BENNETT: Okay. Any questions | |
