Hi Chris,

I hope you and your family have been well and are enjoying the holidays.

As you know, your HPC term of service is among those expiring at the end of 2021. Thank you for your service on the Commission since 2013. Mayor Hamilton has decided not to renew your appointment for another term at this time. You will be receiving a letter to that effect shortly.

Your willingness to share your wealth of knowledge and passion for preservation with your community is much appreciated. The impacts of your service will be felt for many years to come.

Best,

Mary Catherine

Hi Allison,

Don told me you would be interested in serving as a mayoral appointment on the Historic Preservation Commission. That's great!

To get the process started, would you please complete this application:

<https://bloomington.in.gov/onboard/applicants/apply> It only takes a few minutes and allows us to have all the information we need.

Thank you and I'll be back in touch once we have received your information. Have a great weekend!

Hi Allison!

We will get busy preparing your appointment letter. You should receive it soon. Staff will reach out to you early next week to welcome you and begin to get you the information you'll need for the next meeting.

One thing I wanted to mention; I tell all of our appointees that we will never tell you how to vote on an issue that comes before the Commission, but as a mayoral appointment we may reach out if there is a topic that is of particular interest to the Mayor and would appreciate the courtesy of hearing his perspective.

Thanks again,

Mary Catherine

Good morning Allison,

I am writing to extend a warm welcome to the Bloomington Historic Preservation Commission. I am the staff person who will be sending you the meeting packets along with coordinating continual education and other events. I am currently working on updating the Commissioner's Manual but am sending you the 2021 version.

We meet most second and fourth Thursdays of each month and are currently doing so via Zoom. This week's meeting has been cancelled and our next one will take place on February 24th.

I have attached a copy of the schedule for your information as well. Feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Have a lovely day!

Good morning Allison,

I am writing to extend a warm welcome to the Bloomington Historic Preservation Commission. I am the staff person who will be sending you the meeting packets along with coordinating continual education and other events. I am currently working on updating the Commissioner's Manual but am sending you the 2021 version.

We meet most second and fourth Thursdays of each month and are currently doing so via Zoom. This week's meeting has been cancelled and our next one will take place on February 24th.

I have attached a copy of the schedule for your information as well. Feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Have a lovely day!

Commissioners,

We wanted to make you aware of a procedure at tonight's City Council meeting regarding Mayoral appointments to the HPC. We have discovered a step was omitted on most of your appointments and are working to rectify it quickly. State law and local ordinance require that Mayoral appointments to the HPC be subject to approval by the City Council, and we've discovered that step has not been taken going back to 2020 (except for one appointment, Commissioner Seddon). As such, we are discussing this at the City Council meeting tonight and wanted to make you aware of it. We are sorry for the short notice - when it was brought to our attention last Friday, we started working on solutions, and tonight's meeting is the first opportunity to have it rectified. We will be asking the Council to approve of all of your appointments and will keep you updated.

Please let me or Gloria know if you have any questions about this at all. Please also know that this doesn't impact business that's been conducted on the HPC up to this point. We are on solid footing there.

Again, we apologize for the short notice and for the procedural omissions - and we hope for a fix as soon as tonight.

Dear Ms. Chopra,

Thank you for your interest in the Historic Preservation Commission. This letter officially confirms your appointment to the commission. Your term will run through December 31, 2024. This term is subject to the provisions of the Bloomington Municipal Code and/or Indiana Code and is subject to changes in either that may apply.

The Historic Preservation Commission usually meets twice a month, due to Covid-19 precautions, meetings may be held via Zoom. Gloria Colom in the Housing and Neighborhood Department is the liaison for the commission. She will contact you prior to your first meeting. If you have any questions in the meantime, you can contact Gloria at 812-349-3420.

Your willingness to serve our community is very much appreciated.

Sincerely,

John Hamilton
