

Indiana Cities
City	Time Limits in Code?	Details
Indianapolis	Yes	Councilmembers may speak up to 2x, for up to 5 min each, on each issue (exceptions apply)
Fort Wayne	Yes	Councilmembers may speak up to 2x, for up to 5 min each, on each issue (exceptions apply)
Evansville	Yes	Councilmembers may speak up to 2x, for up to 5 min each, on each issue (exceptions apply)
South Bend	Yes	Councilmembers may speak up to 2x, for up to 5 min each, on each issue (exceptions apply)
Carmel	No
Fishers	No
Hammond	No
Lafayette	Yes	Councilmembers may speak up to 2x, for up to 5 min each, on each issue (exceptions apply)
Noblesville	No
Gary	Yes	Councilmembers may not speak more than once until everyone wishing to speak has spoken; 3-minute time limit
Muncie	No
Greenwood	No
Kokomo	No
Terre Haute	No
Anderson	No
Elkhart	No
Mishawaka	No - see Details	A member may speak as often on the same question as necessary, but the mover of a proposition shall in any case be entitled to close the debate.
Columbus	No
Jeffersonville	No

Big 10 Cities
City	Time Limits in Code?	Details
Champaign-Urbana, IL	Yes	No member may speak more than 5 minutes on one topic, except by unanimous consent, after every other member who wishes to speak does so.
Iowa City, IAA	No
College Park, MD	No
Ann Arbor, MI	No
East Lansing, MI	No
Minneapolis, MN	Yes	No Member shall speak more than twice to the same question during the same meeting. 7 min first speech, 5 min second. Exceptions apply.
Lincoln, NE	No - see Details	No member may speak more than once on the same question - with exceptions

Evanston, IL	No
Columbus, OH	Yes	Councilmembers may speak up to 2x, for up to 5 min each, on each issue (may only speak twice after all who wanted to speak have done so)
State College, PA	No
West Lafayette, IN	No	